

CLIFTON, MARSHALL WALLER GERVASE, 1903–1975

Marshall Waller Gervase Clifton, architect and artist, was born on 11 September 1903 at Wokalup, Western Australia to Gervase Clifton, farmer, and his wife Florence Mabel, née Knowles. Marshall was the great-great-grandson of Marshall Waller Clifton.

In March 1922 Clifton began a four-year cadetship in architecture at the Public Works Department, Perth. He was elected an associate of the Royal Institute of Architects of Western Australia in 1926. He remained in the department as a junior assistant architect and later assistant architect, before joining the practice of George Herbert Parry.

Clifton sailed for England in 1930 in order to further his career. He was employed in London by E. Vincent Harris, and helped with designs for the Manchester Central Library and the Leeds Civic Hall. He also attended classes at the Royal Academy's school of architecture from January 1931. Having visited Europe, he returned to Perth in December 1932 and formed a partnership with Parry. He married Nancy Millicent Hughes on 28 April 1934.

Clifton was honorary architect and artist to the Royal Western Australian Historical Society in 1936-75. In June 1937 he established his own practice and concentrated on domestic architecture. He was appointed lieutenant in the Militia on 23 June 1941 and was posted to Western Command in 1942, where he performed engineering staff duties. He was transferred to the Australian Imperial Force on 8 September and confirmed in the rank of captain in July 1943. He was demobilized in Perth on 19 September 1944.

In 1946 he formed a partnership with his former pupil, Eric Leach; re-establishing his own practice in 1953. A fellow of the Royal Australian Institute of Architects, 1952, he was president of its Western Australian chapter, 1956-58 and a fellow of the Royal Institute of British Artists, 1959. As honorary architect to the State branch of the National Trust of Australia, 1965-72 he was responsible for restoration work at Strawberry Hill Farm, Albany and Woodbridge, Guildford.

Clifton died on 3 December 1975 at Mosman Park and was buried in Australind cemetery; his wife and two daughters survived him.
