

WATERHOUSE FAMILY

Ernest John Waterhouse, son of Ernest Frederick and Amy Mary Ann Waterhouse (nee Stuart, daughter of Colonel Stuart of S.A. Regiment). Ernest John was born 16 September 1899 at Coolgardie, died 4 November 1966 at Goomalling. Married Marjorie Southwell Tilly (daughter of A.L. Tilly, pharmacist of Perth) on 15 November 1924 at West Perth Church of England. Served in World War One (bugler in 11th Battalion at 15 years of age), joined R. and A. Bank 1919. In 1922 bought a Soldier Settlement Farm at Goomalling, next to his brother's property. Member of RSL, Goomalling Hospital Board (16 years, Chairman 10 years), founder of local Infant Health Clinic (Secretary 3 years, Chairman 10 years) and member of Goomalling Shire Council. Sergeant-Instructor of local VDC in World War Two. Educated at Cottesloe and Perth Boys' School.

Frederick Wicknea Waterhouse born 13 April 1896 at Coolgardie, died 27 October 1972 at Perth. Son of Ernest Frederick and Amy Mary Ann Waterhouse, brother of Ernest John Waterhouse, married Ethel Baldwin (widow) 12 April 1960. Served World War One. Bought Soldier Settlement Farm at Goomalling adjacent to brother's property. Retired to Rockingham before 1945.

A partnership of Ernest John Waterhouse's family commenced as E.J. Waterhouse and Co. in the 1950's to 1966. Also, a partnership of Ronald Stuart Waterhouse and Robert Francis Waterhouse was formed in the 1960's for contracting and development of a property at Mogumber in the name of Waterhouse Brothers, but this was discontinued in 1973 when the properties were sold.
