

PUBLIC SCHOOLS' ASSOCIATION OF WESTERN AUSTRALIA

The Public Schools' Association of Western Australia was formed in 1905. Over the years it consisted of Aquinas College, Christ Church Grammar School, Guildford Grammar School, Hale School, Scotch College, Wesley College and Trinity College. It has been variously named the Public Secondary Schools' Association of W.A. and the Public Schools' Association of W.A. Its main function was to provide for competition in various Inter-school sports. It was run by a committee of two delegates from each school.
