BA1343/10	/98	Derek Keene	Funeral for the late Jerimiah Rivers.	Jerimiah Rivers was a tragically unlucky little boy. Like most aboriginal children he loved to go swimming, but sadly on a trip to Mary Pool he picked up the meningitis bacteria and despite a two week battle to save his life, he passed away in Darwin. This little boy's funeral was held a few days before Christmas. The funeral was attended by hundreds of mourners, and he was laid to rest next to his grandfather the late Scotty Rivers.	1991
