

Patriotic War Song.

“WHENEVER ENGLAND CALLS!”

Words by J. D. COUSINS.

Music by Dr. SUMMERS,
MUS. DOC., CANTOUR; MUS. BAC., OXON.; MUS. BAC., MELBOURNE.

COPYRIGHT.

Price 1/-

S. T. UPHAM, PRINTER, 583 WELLINGTON STREET, PERTH.

WHENEVER ENGLAND CALLS.

[COPYRIGHT].

We have settled in Australia,
And made this place our home ;
We're British to the backbone,
Though we live across the foam ;
If England is in danger, boys !
We're there at beck or call—
To face the fight and terrible noise,
She can have us one and all.

CHORUS.

She can have us one and all ;
Yes, have us one and all—
We will fight for right,
With all our might,
Whenever England calls.

When England called for soldiers,
She did not call in vain ;
The English, Scotch, and Irish—
Not forgetting little Wales.
The brave Australians, they are there,
To do their part or fall—
In England's war, they all declare,
She can have us one and all !

The waves are ruled by Britannia—
Britannia the great and true—
And our lads are always ready
To fight for red white, and blue.
On land or sea the Briton's found,
Whene'er we're wanted and duty call,
United we stand the whole world round,
England can have us one and all.

J. D. COUSINS.

Whenever England Calls.

Words by J. D. COUSINS.

Music by Dr. SUMMERS.

Marziale.

Piano introduction in G major, 2/4 time. The music is marked f (forte) and features a rhythmic pattern of eighth and sixteenth notes in the right hand, with a bass line of quarter notes in the left hand.

mf We have set - tled in Aus - tra - lia, And made this place our home, We're British to the backbone, tho' we live a - cross the foam. If Eng - land is in dan - ger, boys, We're there at beck or call To face the fight and terrible noise, She can have us one and all. She can have us one and all, We will fight for right with all our might when e - ver Eng - land calls.

Yes, have us one and all.