PREFACE.

THE Publishers have great pleasure in placing before the public the 1898 edition of THE WESTERN AUSTRALIA POST OFFICE DIRECTORY, and take this opportunity to express their thanks to the business men throughout the Colony for their continued and increased support, and to the Postmaster-General and the various Official Departments for their hearty co-operation and assistance.

Since the last issue of the Directory in 1897 the population of the Colony has largely increased, and new Towns and Townships have been formed throughout the Gold Fields. All places of importance have been visited by special representatives, and every possible care taken to ensure correctness.

THE TOWNS SECTION contains separate Street Directories of Perth, Fremantle, and Coolgardie, and Alphabetical Directories for every other Town, Township and Postal District in Western Australia.

THE ALPHABETICAL SECTION contains the names for the entire Colony, arranged under ONE Alphabet.

THE TRADES SECTION shews the Business Firms of the Colony, arranged under their individual trade or profession.

These three classifications enable the enquirer to see at a glance, first, the names of Householders or Traders in any one Town; secondly, the address and occupation of any resident in the Colony; and, thirdly, the number of persons throughout Western Australia engaged in any one trade or calling.

Separate Medical, Ecclesiastical, Legal, Educational, Banking, Insurance, Mining, Pastoral and Agricultural, Local Government, Customs, Official, and Postal and Telegraphic Directories are given, making the work comprehensive and complete.

In conclusion, the Publishers hope that the present edition will be found to have fully maintained the reputation of the Western Australia Post Office Directory, and thus ensure a continued support for the next issue, which will be ready in February, 1899.
