Drafts upon the Branches are issued by the Head Office, and may also be obtained from the Bank's Agents through England, Scotland, and Ireland.

Commercial and Circular Travelling Credits issued—available throughout the World.

Telegraphic Remittances are also made.

Bills on the Australian States and Dominion of New Zealand are purchased or sent for collection.

Deposits are received at the Head Office at rates of interest and for periods, which may be ascertained on application.

All communications for the Branches should pass through the Head Office, and it would be a convenience to receive such at one clear day (when practicable) before the Mail leaves London.

LONDON, January, 1911.
