This board is established by virtue of "The Legal Practitioners' Act, 1893," and has power to regulate and control the examination and admission of articled clerks and the examination of all candidates for admission to the Bar of the State. The certificate of the board is necessary before any person can be admitted to practise.

Clerks are required to pass the usual preliminary examination in General Knowledge, and to serve articles for a period of five years, or in the case of a person who has taken a degree of Bachelor of Law at any British or Australasian University recognised by the Board, a period of three years.

Barristers and Solicitors of England or Ireland, and Writers to the Signet and Solicitors of the admitted in any British colony where (i.) the law is similar to that administered in this State, (ii.)

The board has power to inquire into complaints against practitioners for illegal, unprofessional, ment or otherwise on the report as it may think fit.

Applicants for admission must be present in court when motion is made.

Copies of the rules made by the board, under "The Legal Practitioners' Act, 1893," may be
