"for value and friendly

SERVICE"

Just on 80 years ago the "House of Foy's" was founded and one of it's first business principles was "value and friendly service" . . . . right through all these years that same principle has been rigidly adhered to . . . as years passed the "Service" idea grew with the times, and to-day the vast Foy's Emporium fairly bristles with "additional services" to make for far greater shopping pleasure and convenience . . . here are some of the "service features" at Foy's:
