

NORTH PERTH, All Saints, Woodville. ANGLICAN CHURCH

At the turn of the century, the North Perth Anglican parish of All Saints, Woodville held Sunday school classes in Hahn's tower house, on the corner of Olive and View streets, and services in Gibson Hall on the corner of Daphne and Angove Streets, or in the North Perth Primary School. A wooden building transported from Canning Mills, and erected on the corner of Rose (Glebe) and View Streets in 1904, was used for church services until St Hilda's Anglican Church was constructed on the site in 1915.
