

MARY DURACK MILLER PAPERS:

PD: PATRICK (PATSY) DURACK

Patrick Durack (1834-1898) also known as Patsy, born in Ireland was son of Michael and Bridget (nee Dillon) Durack, father of Michael Patrick Durack (1865-1950), grandfather of Mary Durack. He arrived in Australia with family in 1853. In 1862 he married Mary (nee Costello); they have eight children. He was the pastoral pioneer in Western Australia and established Argyle Downs and Ivanhoe Stations. He retired in Perth and died in 1898.

This collection includes original documents of cheque butts, stock book, account book and receipt book for Patrick's pastoral company. It gives interesting information of original 100 cattle in 1868 (Goulburn) increased to 30,987 in 1884, other expenditure for wages, purchases of land and goods.
