ROYAL WESTERN AUSTRALIAN HISTORICAL SOCIETY (RWAHS)

Collection of Papers on Western Australian History

In 1926, F. I. (Francis Illingworth) Bray started the collection for RWAHS and the entire collection was later donated to Battye Library. A total of 894 research essays and papers pertaining Western Australia social history are collected and listed.

The collection has been re-listed to give a fuller description and location of individual items.
The original numbers and original listing order, as applied by RWAHS, have been retained.

A photocopy of the listing from RWAHS was compiled and bound with spine title:
