

LE SOUEF FAMILY

ERNEST ALBERT LE SOUEF, 1869-1937

Second son of the ten children of Albert Alexander Cochrane Le Souef and his wife Caroline, née Cotton, Ernest Le Souef was born on 13 September 1869 at Elwood, Melbourne. In 1888 he was accountant to the Zoological and Acclimatization Society of Victoria. In 1895 he qualified as a veterinary surgeon, working at night while studying, and was appointed honorary veterinary surgeon to the society. In 1897 he was appointed director of the Perth Zoological Gardens. He bought animals in the eastern colonies for the opening of the Zoo on 17 October 1898. On 20 April 1899 he married Ellen Grace, daughter of Rev. Friedrich Hagenauer, at Ramahyuck.

Ernest Le Souef was attached to the Second Light Horse Brigade headquarters in Egypt, he was wounded and repatriated in 1917. He left the Australian Military Forces in 1930 with the rank of colonel.

In 1919-32 Ernest Le Souef lectured part time in agriculture at the University of Western Australia and in 1923 contributed to the containment of an outbreak of rinderpest. In 1932 the zoo, plagued by financial problems, was transferred on Le Souef's recommendation to the State Gardens Board. He then joined the Agricultural Bank as veterinary adviser for the Margaret River district.

ELLEN GRACE LE SOUEF, nee Hagenauer, 1873-1947

The seventh child of the Rev. Frederick and Louise Hagenauer, nee Knobloch of Germany. Both had been called to be missionaries in the Moravian Brotherhood, later to merge with the Presbyterian Church. Ellen met Ernest as a young girl when she and her parents lived at Ramahyuck Mission in Victoria. Ellen's letters and diaries describe the social life of the day. See also MN 1604, Hagenauer Family papers.

LESLIE ERNEST LE SOUEF, 1900-1996

Born in South Perth in 1900, the son of Ernest Albert and Ellen Grace (nee Hagenauer) Le Souef, Leslie was educated at Perth Modern School and the University of Western Australia, then Melbourne University.

During the Second World War, Le Souef served overseas, attaining the rank of Major and Lt. Col. in command of the Australian Army Medical Corps. He raised and trained the 2/7 Australian Field Ambulance Unit in 1939. He was captured by German soldiers and made a prisoner-of-war on the Island of Crete.

For his work whilst a prisoner-of-war, he was awarded the Medaille d'Honneur du Service de Sante Militaire and the Medaille de la Reconnaissance Francaise.

Dr. Le Souef was the honorary secretary of the British Medical Association, WA in 1930, he established the plastic and burns unit at Royal Perth Hospital and Princess Margaret Hospital, Perth in 1948, was instrumental in establishing the West Australian Medical School and was co-founder of the Anti-Cancer Council. In addition, he was a member of the University Senate from 1936 to 1977 (excluding the Second World War years) and Warden of Convocation from 1965 to 1968.

In 1950 he commenced development of his farming property "Glenellie" at Margaret River, continuing there until March 1967 at which time he retired to Perth.

MILDRED HAGENAUER MANNING, nee Le Souef, 1901-1990

Born in South, attended Perth College and graduated from the University of Western Australia in 1923, majoring in Zoology and Botany. Taught at Presbyterian Ladies College, then at Wesley Boys' College, until retirement in 1970. A distinguished teaching career culminated in being awarded the MBE in 1964. Married, in 1951, Bernard Manning, a well-known singer and actor in Perth, who founded the Gilbert and Sullivan Society in Perth
