

LEFROY FAMILY

Three members of the Lefroy family arrived in WA in the 19th Century. Henry Maxwell, followed by his cousins Anthony O'Grady and Gerald de Courcy, arrived in Western Australia in the early 1840s.

This collection includes letters sent to William Locke Brockman, written by W. Tanner, miscellaneous papers of Reverend John Burdett Wittenoon, a farm Journal of Samuel Moore and letters of Anthony O'Grady Lefroy and Henry Maxwell Lefroy.

Born August 1818, died 18 July 1879. He arrived in the colony in January 1841, and after buying some property he left to rejoin the Royal Navy as a tutor in mathematics. He returned to W.A., with his wife, as the Superintendent of the Convict establishment. He owned land at Spearwood, Serpentine Falls and Dutannuning at York. Was on the Fremantle Board of Education in 1876, Chairman of the Fremantle Council 1876
