FARMER, Frank Rhodes

Frank Rhodes Farmer was a Western Australian author. Following the publication of his first novel Thirsty Earth in 1934, which was set on a Murchison pastoral station, Farmer continued to write about West Australian topics - novels, plays and short stories - without ever being published again. He wrote under his own name as well as the pseudonyms "Esperance" and "Koodardie".

The Papers

The Farmer collection of bound typescripts was transferred to Private Archives from the monographs section of Battye Library in December 1997 (4800A).

Holdings = 0.90m

Access

The J S Battye Library provides access to original material. In some situations, this may not be possible and alternative formats such as microfilm, microfiche, typescripts or photocopies are supplied for researchers' use. Where alternative formats are available, these must be used.

Copyright Restrictions

The Commonwealth Copyright Act 1968 regulates copying of unpublished material. It is the user's legal obligation to determine and satisfy copyright.
